THE WORLD'S END

FIRST RESTAURANT GROUP is made up of London's best restaurants, pubs and bars. Our venues range from The Waterway; a stunning riverside setting with a bustling terrace and child-friendly atmosphere to the chic Notting Hill Brasserie and bar which creates the finest in modern French cuisine along side a luxurious piano bar serving up rare cocktail creations.

We're also immensely proud of our New York Deli style fare served at Harry Morgan and our newest addition to the group; The World's End which includes three different dining concepts all within this landmark building.

Or how about The Running Horse on Davies Street the oldest public house in the heart of the hustle and bustle of London's West End and The Clerk & Well in the heart of EC1 always has a great atmosphere with a tempting Thai menu too. Alternatively relax and enjoy that holiday feeling at The Summerhouse restaurant which looks out on the Grand Union canal and soaks up the sun in Little Venice.

The First Restaurant Group boasts a diverse range of cuisines, bar venues, and private hire rooms to suit any palate. Read on for details on all our venues.

THE SUMMERHOUSE

The Summerhouse is situated on the Grand Union Canal only a stone's throw from our famous Waterway restaurant in Little Venice. We can't control the weather but we can offer you that holiday feeling whilst dining overlooking the water and enjoying our crisp Rosé wines, summer salads and the best fish & chips in town.

THE WATERWAY

Established in 2002, The Waterway has established itself as one of Maida Vale's best local restaurants and one of London's greatest outdoor terraces with spectacular views overlooking the beautiful Grand Union Canal. Voted as the best terrace in London, this is the closest to Venice London has. With 150 seats outside in the summer and a cozy inside for the winter that feels like a ski chalet, complete with fireplace, live music and a superb menu all year round.

NOTTING HILL BRASSERIE

The Notting Hill Brasserie was converted from a row of three Edwardian town houses and still retains many original features. The restaurant comfortably seats 100 guests in beautifully appointed, interconnecting rooms. The lighting is low, the atmosphere romantic and the service attentive and friendly. Live Jazz is played on a nightly basis in our new No.92 piano bar launched in offering a cocktail selection themed around centuries of blending in a luxurious art-deco styled interior.

THE RUNNING HORSE

The Running Horse is a true gem of surviving pub tradition in the middle of Mayfair. The original building was first transformed into a Tavern in 1738 and like many in its day seeking royal protection, its name derived from the "Gallop of Hanover". It has survived to become one of the oldest public houses in Grosvenor, Mayfair.

THE WORLDS END

The World's End, located on Chelsea's buzzing King's Road, is First Restaurant Group's latest exciting addition. This 17th century grade II listed building was once a hang-out for The Rolling Stones and a hub for fashionistas and artists in the 60s. Now it boasts 3 entirely different concepts on each floor, making it one of the most versatile events venues around.

HARRY MORGAN

Established in 1948 by Harry Morgan, this once tiny takeaway deli is now the largest and most famous New York Style Deli Restaurant in London with a reputation for being the only place to go for freshly made deli sandwiches and salads. Harry Morgan was voted 'The Best Chicken Soup in London' by the Sunday Times. As its reputation has grown, Harry Morgan has almost become as well known for its celebrity clientele as for its renowned deli style foods. Currently we have our flagship restaurant and deli in St. John's Wood and another branch in Fenwick Brent Cross as well as franchises in Latvia and Istanbul (opening 2011) with further plans for expansion in the future.
